

When Do You Need an Elder Law Attorney?

Is caring for your loved one leaving you feeling overwhelmed about the future? Is it challenging trying to balance caregiving responsibilities and prioritizing legal and financial matters? Are you hearing information about public benefits that is confusing and preventing you from making decisions that are in the best interest of you and your family member?

PROBLEM	SOLUTIONS
<input type="checkbox"/> Care:            You want your elder or disabled family member to get the care they need, in the appropriate setting, and to qualify for any available programs to help pay for it.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Medi-Cal and VA Benefits Planning</li> <li>• Health Care Advocacy</li> <li>• Special Powers of Attorney and Trusts</li> <li>• Life Care Planning</li> </ul>
<input type="checkbox"/> Decision Making:            Your spouse or parent is no longer able to make personal care or financial decisions.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Powers of Attorney and Trusts</li> <li>• Conservatorships and Alternatives</li> </ul>
<input type="checkbox"/> Public Benefit Challenges:            My spouse or family member needs Long Term Care, and we aren't sure how to pay for it.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Long Term Medi-Cal Eligibility</li> <li>• VA Programs</li> <li>• Medicare Rights to Skilled Care and Therapy</li> <li>• Asset Protection Planning</li> <li>• Recovery Avoidance</li> <li>• Special Needs Trusts and other strategies</li> </ul>
<input type="checkbox"/> Advocacy:            My family member is not getting the services and care they are entitled to or is being discharged too soon.	Our attorneys and staff serve as advocates to assure they are getting the services and care as the law provides.
<input type="checkbox"/> Public Benefit Challenges:            My family member on public benefits is getting a settlement or inheritance that may jeopardize their eligibility for important benefits.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Sheltering of Assets; Trust Reformation</li> <li>• Special Needs Trusts and other strategies</li> </ul> We will carefully review your needs and help you select your best option. We are experts with SSI, SSDI, Medicare and Medi-Cal and asset preservation planning.

When Do You Need an Elder Law Attorney?

---

(Notes)